

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1885.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

BRYANT'S FUND.

The Fourth passed off very quietly here and seemed more like Sunday than a National holiday.

James Kimball of Portland and John Kimball of Adams, Me., have been visiting their niece, Mrs. E. M. Bartlett, the past week.

L. N. Cummings and family from Uxbridge, Mass., arrived last week.

Miss Lura Cole was married last week to Mr. Trumbull of Mass., and accompanied by her husband, is on a short visit to her father, Abner Cole.

"Aunt Hannah" Henry arrived Thursday from Ashland, Mass.

Harry Bates came home from Lynn, Mass., to spend the Fourth.

Almon M. Whitman is spending a few weeks with his parents, last week.

Tramps and beggars are more numerous than they have been for many years. A few vigorous applications of the tramp law should be made to check such lawlessness.

The funeral services of Mrs. Benjamin Davis were held Tuesday, July 7, at Canton.

GREENWOOD.

J. F. Emery had new potatoes and green peas the 4th.

Seaver R. son of C. M. Buck, arrived home from Ellsworth to spend his vacation.

C. M. has commenced to cut some June grass. The farmers there are not much commenced haying in earnest till next week and week after next.

B. P. Martin and wife went to Oxford the 4th to visit her parents.

Some of our young folk went to Albany Basin the 4th, and some to Amesbury, where they had a picnic. It is said they had a grand good time at both places.

LOVELL.

Mrs. Seth Hutchins has been confined to her bed by illness for the past few weeks, but is now improving.

The Fourth of July passed here very quietly. Quite a number of people were in the village. There was music by the band assisted by Frank Cash of Bridgton, a tub race on the mill pond, a skating race at the rink, and a John F. Hobbs, eq. In the morning the festivities appeared with the usual abundance.

Friday evening there was a dance at the skating rink, with supper at the American House.

A few days ago Frank Parker who lives at the Toll Bridge district in Fryeburg, was badly injured by a yearling bull. He went into the pasture to see the bull and was thrown by him. He was attacked and thrown to the ground. Two ribs were broken and he remained getting better for two hours. He is now in bed.

E. G. Kimball has been quite feeble in health lately.

The inhabitant of the city now seeks the cool retreat of the country and takes great interest in the welfare of his countrymen.

J. H. Walker is visiting at the home of his father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

One plague follows another. The sewing machine men are thinned out somewhat, but the moving machine fellows are thicker than ever, each with the best machine.

RICHARDSON'S LAKE.

Joseph Murray, the Irish Comedian, and wife of New York, who have been staying at the Upper dam, started home Saturday. They made a stay of five weeks.

Miss Redie, who is camping out with her father, has been visiting at the home of her father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

Two old girls by the forelock. Metalic Point while working off would try their luck at fishing. All was a place of cotton and an old hook crowned their efforts. They caught thirty-five handsome trout.

A fisherman not a hundred miles from Messisquoi brook was seen with the fish; the fish were taken on each side of him. His friends advised him to stay and fish. He was told that he could be seen late at night.

In last week's it should have read that L. H. Hovey and Mrs. Pen. Senious took their trip to the lakes. Sunday the lake road was flooded. Mac, Andrew's oldest friend, cannot now drive one of his horses. H.

LOCKE'S MILLS. Samuel Foster and son from North Norway were in town last Thursday on business with their father.

A family has moved into one of E. E. Rand's farms, formerly occupied by O. W. Brown. He is to run a Waymouth Lath in "Cobbles" and a saw-mill.

Fishing in our ponds never fails to be good. Good boats to let at reasonable prices.

I notice summer company is arriving at Dudley Cottage.

Frank Buck from Gorham, N. H., is visiting his father, Stephen Buck.

Fourth of July passed off quietly in this village. There celebrated the day to Bethel. Their day had a very good time.

Daniel B. Lebrack, and wife from South Waterford, are in town visiting friends.

Mr. Davis and family have moved from Bethel on to the Eliza Libby place near the railroad.

Mrs. M. P. Davis has her new house finished. I understand it will be occupied by our depot agent, Fred Scott.

OTISFIELD. E. C. Marple has sold his nice cott to Bridgton parties.

Eliza Turner has been suffering for the past two weeks with an abscess on the back of her neck.

Dr. James L. Warren's family from Oxford have moved into town this week.

There is a meeting on Ball Hill every two weeks. Those who attend are Lottie Robinson and Mabel Turner are home from Bridgton school on a short vacation.

M. E. Fagan has returned home from Philadelphia. L. E. R.

HARRISBORO. Henry Hovey has a lamb three months old that weighs 100 pounds. S. K. Wright raised 36 lambs all very large and handsome, which he sold for $100 per head.

N. J. Wright bought a coeset sheep six years ago for which he paid $5.00. From this sheep he has sold one head of wool worth of lambs, $21.00 by work of wool. He has 6 coeset lambs worth at least $50.00.

WEST BETHEL.

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1885.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

BRYANT'S FUND.

The Fourth passed off very quietly here and seemed more like Sunday than a National holiday.

James Kimball of Portland and John Kimball of Adams, Me., have been visiting their niece, Mrs. E. M. Bartlett, the past week.

L. N. Cummings and family from Uxbridge, Mass., arrived last week.

Miss Lura Cole was married last week to Mr. Trumbull of Mass., and accompanied by her husband, is on a short visit to her father, Abner Cole.

"Aunt Hannah" Henry arrived Thursday from Ashland, Mass.

Harry Bates came home from Lynn, Mass., to spend the Fourth.

Almon M. Whitman is spending a few weeks with his parents, last week.

Tramps and beggars are more numerous than they have been for many years. A few vigorous applications of the tramp law should be made to check such lawlessness.

The funeral services of Mrs. Benjamin Davis were held Tuesday, July 7, at Canton.

GREENWOOD.

J. F. Emery had new potatoes and green peas the 4th.

Seaver R. son of C. M. Buck, arrived home from Ellsworth to spend his vacation.

C. M. has commenced to cut some June grass. The farmers there are not much commenced haying in earnest till next week and week after next.

B. P. Martin and wife went to Oxford the 4th to visit her parents.

Some of our young folk went to Albany Basin the 4th, and some to Amesbury, where they had a picnic. It is said they had a grand good time at both places.

LOVELL.

Mrs. Seth Hutchins has been confined to her bed by illness for the past few weeks, but is now improving.

The Fourth of July passed here very quietly. Quite a number of people were in the village. There was music by the band assisted by Frank Cash of Bridgton, a tub race on the mill pond, a skating race at the rink, and a John F. Hobbs, eq. In the morning the festivities appeared with the usual abundance.

Friday evening there was a dance at the skating rink, with supper at the American House.

A few days ago Frank Parker who lives at the Toll Bridge district in Fryeburg, was badly injured by a yearling bull. He went into the pasture to see the bull and was thrown by him. He was attacked and thrown to the ground. Two ribs were broken and he remained getting better for two hours. He is now in bed.

E. G. Kimball has been quite feeble in health lately.

The inhabitant of the city now seeks the cool retreat of the country and takes great interest in the welfare of his countrymen.

J. H. Walker is visiting at the home of his father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

One plague follows another. The sewing machine men are thinned out somewhat, but the moving machine fellows are thicker than ever, each with the best machine.

Joseph Murray, the Irish Comedian, and wife of New York, who have been staying at the Upper dam, started home Saturday. They made a stay of five weeks.

Miss Redie, who is camping out with her father, has been visiting at the home of her father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

Two old girls by the forelock. Metalic Point while working off would try their luck at fishing. All was a place of cotton and an old hook crowned their efforts. They caught thirty-five handsome trout.

A fisherman not a hundred miles from Messisquoi brook was seen with the fish; the fish were taken on each side of him. His friends advised him to stay and fish. He was told that he could be seen late at night.

In last week's it should have read that L. H. Hovey and Mrs. Pen. Senious took their trip to the lakes. Sunday the lake road was flooded. Mac, Andrew's oldest friend, cannot now drive one of his horses. H.

LOCKE'S MILLS. Samuel Foster and son from North Norway were in town last Thursday on business with their father.

A family has moved into one of E. E. Rand's farms, formerly occupied by O. W. Brown. He is to run a Waymouth Lath in "Cobbles" and a saw-mill.

Fishing in our ponds never fails to be good. Good boats to let at reasonable prices.

I notice summer company is arriving at Dudley Cottage.

Frank Buck from Gorham, N. H., is visiting his father, Stephen Buck.

Fourth of July passed off quietly in this village. There celebrated the day to Bethel. Their day had a very good time.

Daniel B. Lebrack, and wife from South Waterford, are in town visiting friends.

Mr. Davis and family have moved from Bethel on to the Eliza Libby place near the railroad.

Mrs. M. P. Davis has her new house finished. I understand it will be occupied by our depot agent, Fred Scott.

OTISFIELD. E. C. Marple has sold his nice cott to Bridgton parties.

Eliza Turner has been suffering for the past two weeks with an abscess on the back of her neck.

Dr. James L. Warren's family from Oxford have moved into town this week.

There is a meeting on Ball Hill every two weeks. Those who attend are Lottie Robinson and Mabel Turner are home from Bridgton school on a short vacation.

M. E. Fagan has returned home from Philadelphia. L. E. R.

HARRISBORO. Henry Hovey has a lamb three months old that weighs 100 pounds. S. K. Wright raised 36 lambs all very large and handsome, which he sold for $100 per head.

ALBANY.

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1885.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

BRYANT'S FUND.

The Fourth passed off very quietly here and seemed more like Sunday than a National holiday.

James Kimball of Portland and John Kimball of Adams, Me., have been visiting their niece, Mrs. E. M. Bartlett, the past week.

L. N. Cummings and family from Uxbridge, Mass., arrived last week.

Miss Lura Cole was married last week to Mr. Trumbull of Mass., and accompanied by her husband, is on a short visit to her father, Abner Cole.

"Aunt Hannah" Henry arrived Thursday from Ashland, Mass.

Harry Bates came home from Lynn, Mass., to spend the Fourth.

Almon M. Whitman is spending a few weeks with his parents, last week.

Tramps and beggars are more numerous than they have been for many years. A few vigorous applications of the tramp law should be made to check such lawlessness.

The funeral services of Mrs. Benjamin Davis were held Tuesday, July 7, at Canton.

GREENWOOD.

J. F. Emery had new potatoes and green peas the 4th.

Seaver R. son of C. M. Buck, arrived home from Ellsworth to spend his vacation.

C. M. has commenced to cut some June grass. The farmers there are not much commenced haying in earnest till next week and week after next.

B. P. Martin and wife went to Oxford the 4th to visit her parents.

Some of our young folk went to Albany Basin the 4th, and some to Amesbury, where they had a picnic. It is said they had a grand good time at both places.

LOVELL.

Mrs. Seth Hutchins has been confined to her bed by illness for the past few weeks, but is now improving.

The Fourth of July passed here very quietly. Quite a number of people were in the village. There was music by the band assisted by Frank Cash of Bridgton, a tub race on the mill pond, a skating race at the rink, and a John F. Hobbs, eq. In the morning the festivities appeared with the usual abundance.

Friday evening there was a dance at the skating rink, with supper at the American House.

A few days ago Frank Parker who lives at the Toll Bridge district in Fryeburg, was badly injured by a yearling bull. He went into the pasture to see the bull and was thrown by him. He was attacked and thrown to the ground. Two ribs were broken and he remained getting better for two hours. He is now in bed.

E. G. Kimball has been quite feeble in health lately.

The inhabitant of the city now seeks the cool retreat of the country and takes great interest in the welfare of his countrymen.

J. H. Walker is visiting at the home of his father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

One plague follows another. The sewing machine men are thinned out somewhat, but the moving machine fellows are thicker than ever, each with the best machine.

Joseph Murray, the Irish Comedian, and wife of New York, who have been staying at the Upper dam, started home Saturday. They made a stay of five weeks.

Miss Redie, who is camping out with her father, has been visiting at the home of her father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

Two old girls by the forelock. Metalic Point while working off would try their luck at fishing. All was a place of cotton and an old hook crowned their efforts. They caught thirty-five handsome trout.

A fisherman not a hundred miles from Messisquoi brook was seen with the fish; the fish were taken on each side of him. His friends advised him to stay and fish. He was told that he could be seen late at night.

In last week's it should have read that L. H. Hovey and Mrs. Pen. Senious took their trip to the lakes. Sunday the lake road was flooded. Mac, Andrew's oldest friend, cannot now drive one of his horses. H.

LOCKE'S MILLS. Samuel Foster and son from North Norway were in town last Thursday on business with their father.

A family has moved into one of E. E. Rand's farms, formerly occupied by O. W. Brown. He is to run a Waymouth Lath in "Cobbles" and a saw-mill.

Fishing in our ponds never fails to be good. Good boats to let at reasonable prices.

I notice summer company is arriving at Dudley Cottage.

Frank Buck from Gorham, N. H., is visiting his father, Stephen Buck.

Fourth of July passed off quietly in this village. There celebrated the day to Bethel. Their day had a very good time.

Daniel B. Lebrack, and wife from South Waterford, are in town visiting friends.

Mr. Davis and family have moved from Bethel on to the Eliza Libby place near the railroad.

Mrs. M. P. Davis has her new house finished. I understand it will be occupied by our depot agent, Fred Scott.

OTISFIELD. E. C. Marple has sold his nice cott to Bridgton parties.

Eliza Turner has been suffering for the past two weeks with an abscess on the back of her neck.

Dr. James L. Warren's family from Oxford have moved into town this week.

There is a meeting on Ball Hill every two weeks. Those who attend are Lottie Robinson and Mabel Turner are home from Bridgton school on a short vacation.

M. E. Fagan has returned home from Philadelphia. L. E. R.

HARRISBORO. Henry Hovey has a lamb three months old that weighs 100 pounds. S. K. Wright raised 36 lambs all very large and handsome, which he sold for $100 per head.

OXFORD.

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1885.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

BRYANT'S FUND.

The Fourth passed off very quietly here and seemed more like Sunday than a National holiday.

James Kimball of Portland and John Kimball of Adams, Me., have been visiting their niece, Mrs. E. M. Bartlett, the past week.

L. N. Cummings and family from Uxbridge, Mass., arrived last week.

Miss Lura Cole was married last week to Mr. Trumbull of Mass., and accompanied by her husband, is on a short visit to her father, Abner Cole.

"Aunt Hannah" Henry arrived Thursday from Ashland, Mass.

Harry Bates came home from Lynn, Mass., to spend the Fourth.

Almon M. Whitman is spending a few weeks with his parents, last week.

Tramps and beggars are more numerous than they have been for many years. A few vigorous applications of the tramp law should be made to check such lawlessness.

The funeral services of Mrs. Benjamin Davis were held Tuesday, July 7, at Canton.

GREENWOOD.

J. F. Emery had new potatoes and green peas the 4th.

Seaver R. son of C. M. Buck, arrived home from Ellsworth to spend his vacation.

C. M. has commenced to cut some June grass. The farmers there are not much commenced haying in earnest till next week and week after next.

B. P. Martin and wife went to Oxford the 4th to visit her parents.

Some of our young folk went to Albany Basin the 4th, and some to Amesbury, where they had a picnic. It is said they had a grand good time at both places.

LOVELL.

Mrs. Seth Hutchins has been confined to her bed by illness for the past few weeks, but is now improving.

The Fourth of July passed here very quietly. Quite a number of people were in the village. There was music by the band assisted by Frank Cash of Bridgton, a tub race on the mill pond, a skating race at the rink, and a John F. Hobbs, eq. In the morning the festivities appeared with the usual abundance.

Friday evening there was a dance at the skating rink, with supper at the American House.

A few days ago Frank Parker who lives at the Toll Bridge district in Fryeburg, was badly injured by a yearling bull. He went into the pasture to see the bull and was thrown by him. He was attacked and thrown to the ground. Two ribs were broken and he remained getting better for two hours. He is now in bed.

E. G. Kimball has been quite feeble in health lately.

The inhabitant of the city now seeks the cool retreat of the country and takes great interest in the welfare of his countrymen.

J. H. Walker is visiting at the home of his father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

One plague follows another. The sewing machine men are thinned out somewhat, but the moving machine fellows are thicker than ever, each with the best machine.

Joseph Murray, the Irish Comedian, and wife of New York, who have been staying at the Upper dam, started home Saturday. They made a stay of five weeks.

Miss Redie, who is camping out with her father, has been visiting at the home of her father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow and is a happy day when he is around.

Two old girls by the forelock. Metalic Point while working off would try their luck at fishing. All was a place of cotton and an old hook crowned their efforts. They caught thirty-five handsome trout.

A fisherman not a hundred miles from Messisquoi brook was seen with the fish; the fish were taken on each side of him. His friends advised him to stay and fish. He was told that he could be seen late at night.

In last week's it should have read that L. H. Hovey and Mrs. Pen. Senious took their trip to the lakes. Sunday the lake road was flooded. Mac, Andrew's oldest friend, cannot now drive one of his horses. H.

LOCKE'S MILLS. Samuel Foster and son from North Norway were in town last Thursday on business with their father.

A family has moved into one of E. E. Rand's farms, formerly occupied by O. W. Brown. He is to run a Waymouth Lath in "Cobbles" and a saw-mill.

Fishing in our ponds never fails to be good. Good boats to let at reasonable prices.

I notice summer company is arriving at Dudley Cottage.

Frank Buck from Gorham, N. H., is visiting his father, Stephen Buck.

Fourth of July passed off quietly in this village. There celebrated the day to Bethel. Their day had a very good time.

Daniel B. Lebrack, and wife from South Waterford, are in town visiting friends.

Mr. Davis and family have moved from Bethel on to the Eliza Libby place near the railroad.

Mrs. M. P. Davis has her new house finished. I understand it will be occupied by our depot agent, Fred Scott.

OTISFIELD. E. C. Marple has sold his nice cott to Bridgton parties.

Eliza Turner has been suffering for the past two weeks with an abscess on the back of her neck.

Dr. James L. Warren's family from Oxford have moved into town this week.

There is a meeting on Ball Hill every two weeks. Those who attend are Lottie Robinson and Mabel Turner are home from Bridgton school on a short vacation.

M. E. Fagan has returned home from Philadelphia. L. E. R.

HARRISBORO. Henry Hovey has a lamb three months old that weighs 100 pounds. S. K. Wright raised 36 lambs all very large and handsome, which he sold for $100 per head.

BETHEL.

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1885.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

BRYANT'S FUND.

The Fourth passed off very quietly here and seemed more like Sunday than a National holiday.

James Kimball of Portland and John Kimball of Adams, Me., have been visiting their niece, Mrs. E. M. Bartlett, the past week.

L. N. Cummings and family from Uxbridge, Mass., arrived last week.

Miss Lura Cole was married last week to Mr. Trumbull of Mass., and accompanied by her husband, is on a short visit to her father, Abner Cole.

"Aunt Hannah" Henry arrived Thursday from Ashland, Mass.

Harry Bates came home from Lynn, Mass., to spend the Fourth.

Almon M. Whitman is spending a few weeks with his parents, last week.

Tramps and beggars are more numerous than they have been for many years. A few vigorous applications of the tramp law should be made to check such lawlessness.

The funeral services of Mrs. Benjamin Davis were held Tuesday, July 7, at Canton.

GREENWOOD.

J. F. Emery had new potatoes and green peas the 4th.

Seaver R. son of C. M. Buck, arrived home from Ellsworth to spend his vacation.

C. M. has commenced to cut some June grass. The farmers there are not much commenced haying in earnest till next week and week after next.

B. P. Martin and wife went to Oxford the 4th to visit her parents.

Some of our young folk went to Albany Basin the 4th, and some to Amesbury, where they had a picnic. It is said they had a grand good time at both places.

LOVELL.

Mrs. Seth Hutchins has been confined to her bed by illness for the past few weeks, but is now improving.

The Fourth of July passed here very quietly. Quite a number of people were in the village. There was music by the band assisted by Frank Cash of Bridgton, a tub race on the mill pond, a skating race at the rink, and a John F. Hobbs, eq.

